Re: United States v. Hasbajrami,
11 Cr. 623 (JG)

Dear Judge DeArcy Hall:

This letter is respectfully submitted in connection with defendant Agron Hasbajrami's recent submission to the Court docketed September 20, 2022 (ECF # 203). Michael K. Bachrach, Esq. and I (who represent Mr. Hasbajrami) have now had the opportunity to read Mr. Hasbajrami's letter, and note that it includes arguments regarding the initial Section 702 electronic surveillance that counsel have not made to this Court because they are beyond the scope of the Second Circuit's remand.

However, Mr. Hasbajrami does retain the right to present those arguments to the U.S. Supreme Court if and when necessary once this Court resolves the issues on remand and (presumably) the Second Circuit reviews that decision, although it may well be that by that point Mr. Hasbajrami will have completed the entirety of his 16-year prison term. That custodial portion of his sentence commenced upon his September 6, 2011, arrest, and is scheduled to expire September 9, 2025 (according to the U.S. Bureau of Prisons's calculations).

Respectfully Submitted,

Joshua L. Dratel
Michael K. Bachrach
